

Atithi Devo Bhawa:

The word Atithi Devo Bhawa derives from Sanskrit, where its meaning is "Guests are Gods". It has been followed by several peoples where they treat Guests as the real incarnation of Gods. Guests in our nation have always been treated humbly and with utter respect.

Atithi Devo Bhawa is all about treating guests with utmost respect and also by providing excellent hospitality services. No matter who the guest is or what his / her background is they need to be taken care of with greatly without any hesitation.

Who We Are ?

Freedom of Living

We are an open platform, focused on providing empowerment opportunities to the Housewives of our Nation. Utilizing their skills they can earn through the platform of pahunaGhar. Almost everyone has a room made for pahunas(Guests) at their homes, which are most of the time vacant and utilizing this space and cooking skills they can start pahunaGhar and earn through it to raise their living standards.

- Not only the Housewives but also any other interested individual may start pahunaGhar at their place
- Time management and scheduling are never done
- With the 2020 Visit Nepal campaign ongoing, pahunaGhar can be a reliable medium for numerous foreigners to stay into and enjoy the rich culture and share various emotions among the communities.
- We aim to connect several hosts and guests, where they can communicate and seek or provide services.

व्युत्पन्न अवस्था

A Housewife may be able to earn through our platform, using their daily skill of cooking and providing excellent hospitality to the Guests. Anyone who wish to earn a living and raise their lifestyle standards may utilize pahunaGhar and start hosting pahunas at their place. Since we are an open platform we do not take any kind of profit for the transactions that are made.

Empowering Women

pahunaGhar provides a platform for women to raise their living standards, where they can host guests with delicious food and great hospitality and earn through it.

Multiple Opportunities

pahunaGhar is not only about providing accommodation facilities, but you can also host a Paying Guest or a bhansaGhar where you can sell foods without any accommodation services.

Home Away from Home

A student residing away from his parents, may find places to stay in where hosts might be of the same caste background that he shares, that way they may get emotionally attached to each other.

For Everyone

Anyone can start a pahunaGhar, all you need is a place where you can host a guest. You dont need to have any education degrees or knowledge. The only skill that you need is to provide great hospitality and delicious meals.
